Re: United States v. Habiba Fagge
21 Cr. 472 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams,

I write requesting a one-time modification of Habiba Fagge's bail conditions to permit her to travel to two different locations in the coming months: first to Jamaica for a birthday vacation, from October 25 to October 29, 2023, and second to Nigeria to participate in a wedding and to explore a National Youth Service Corps opportunity, from November 14, 2023, to January 9, 2024. Pre-Trial Services Officer Dayshawn Bostic has received the details of Ms. Fagge's travel plans and does not object to this application. The Government, via AUSA Matthew King, takes no position. Pertinent to this application, Ms. Fagge recently started a new remote position with Vanderbilt University and will be able to continue working remotely while traveling. Ms. Fagge is also awaiting the Government's response to her YAOP completion and performance reviews.

Respectfully Submitted,

Andrew John Dalack, Esq.
Assistant Federal Defender
